COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 24.—Charles M. MacNeil, president of the Utah Copper company, the United States Sugar & Land company, and actively associated with numerous other western enterprises, and Mrs. Marion P. Irwin of New York, were married in Paris August 8, according to information which has just reached this city.

Mr. William J. Halloran has issued invitations for the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ethelwyn, to Lewis William Sowles on Wednesday evening, September 14, at 8:30 o'clock, in St. Mary's cathedral.

Among the hostesses at the Country club Wednesday who charmingly entertained at luncheon were Mrs. Frank Knox, Mrs. Jackson McCrystal, Miss Minnie Bauer, Miss Margaret Walker, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. Windsor V. Rice, Miss Margaret Bache, Miss Bryan Houston and Miss Virginia Beatty.

Judge and Mrs. O. W. Powers have returned after a two weeks' outing at Coronado Beach.

At the home of Mrs. J. C. Daly, Jr., Mrs. W. M. Bantz, Jr., delightfully entertained the members of her sewing club. Sewing was enjoyed, after which a dainty luncheon was served.

A delightful affair of Wednesday afternoon was when the Misses Ada Kinney and Alice Stevens entertained at a 400 party. Cards were the feature of the afternoon, dainty refreshments being served later. The decorations throughout the house were prettily carried out in garden flowers. The hostess was assisted by several intimate friends.

Mrs. Harriet Lawson and daughters, Mrs. Allen McNitt and Blanche Lawson, and granddaughter, Pauline White, returned yesterday from the Pacific coast, where they have been spending the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Laben, who have spent the summer in Salt Lake, returned to their home in Pueblo last evening.

One of the pleasant affairs of the week was the social and reception given Monday evening in the parlors of the First Congregational church, for the Christian Endeavor society for Miss Mabel A. Jones and Dr. Charles Alexander Broadbush, who are to be married Saturday afternoon in the First Congregational church. Games and a few appropriate toasts, after which dainty refreshments were served, filled the hours of the evening in a pleasant way.

Miss Vera Deane entertained in a charming manner Tuesday afternoon at cards in honor of her sister, Mrs. Alfred Best. The rooms were prettily decorated with sunflowers and gold leaf. The hostess was assisted by her sister, Miss Gladys Deane. The prizes of the afternoon were won by Mrs. E. J. Perkins, and Miss Cecil Burns, and Mrs. Best received a guest prize.

Miss Florence Halloran will entertain this (Thursday) evening at a dinner dance at her home in honor of the Pi Eta chapter society.

Miss Genevieve Love will entertain this afternoon at a luncheon party for her sister, Miss Hazel Love.

A delightful affair of Tuesday evening was the dinner party at the home of Mrs. Edwards at Lagoon for Miss Marie Odell and her guests. The party of twelve left on the 6 o'clock train for the resort where they had dinner at the cafe. The table was prettily decorated with yellow, the color scheme being brought out with the assistance of gold leaf. After dinner dancing was enjoyed. Those present to enjoy the affair were Miss Marie Odell, Miss Margaret Walker, Miss Edith Holdeman, Miss Marianne Oberdorfer, Miss Winifred Bice, Miss Vera Edwards, Morton Church, David Parviz Richardson, Doris Raybould, Dwight Holmes, Harold Horlick and Center Walker. The party was a success.

A Jeweler's Reputation

depends largely upon the advice he gives his customers. When buying jewelry most people must depend upon the jeweler's word for the quality. The fact that a great many people have been buying jewelry of a generation ago, thirty and some nearly fifty years, tells an interesting story of a jeweler's reputation.

One of the pleasant affairs of the week was that given Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. George K. Reese by their children and grandchildren, also great-grandchildren, in honor of their fifty-fourth wedding anniversary. The affair throughout was most quaint and charming, the honored guests wearing the clothes that they wore on the day that they were married, and the dinner being given in the old home where the ceremony took place. The event being the golden wedding, everything as far as possible was carried out in gold and white, goldfish, sunflowers, marigolds and nasturtiums being seen throughout. The place cards were hand-painted in gold. The dining table had for its centerpiece a large chrysanthemum with a great deal of gold and white flowers, and the center of it. All the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and a few intimate friends were present at the affair. The hostesses were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. W. R. Reese, Mrs. E. T. Shimmens, Mrs. A. M. Little and Mrs. George K. Reese, Sr.

Miss Chloe Smoot, daughter of Apostle Reed Smoot, was married in the temple at Salt Lake Wednesday to Ariel Gordon of Logan. After the ceremony in Salt Lake the couple returned to Provo, where a reception was tendered them at the home of the bride's parents. Over two hundred people were present at the reception. A special train was run from Salt Lake, taking among other prominent guests, Governor Perry, Senator Sutherland, Congressman Howell, E. H. Callister and W. E. Rydalen and their wives. The house and lawn were decorated with hunting and flowers and music also was a feature. Miss Fay Looze and Harold Smoot each singing a solo. After the reception the special train returned to Salt Lake about 12 o'clock.

THEY HAVE A DEFINITE PURPOSE. Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief in cases of kidney and bladder ailments. Mrs. Rosa Glaser, Terra Haute, Ind., tells the result in her case. "After suffering for many years from a serious case of kidney trouble and spending much money for so-called cures, I found Foley Kidney Pills the only medicine that gave me a permanent cure. I am again able to be up and attend to my work. I shall never hesitate to recommend them." Schraun-Johnson Drugs, five stores.

THE MINOTAUR

Editor Tribune: The fertile imagination of the ancient Greeks defied the elemental forces and agencies of nature and personified, in the form of nymphs, satyrs, heroes and monsters, the permanent virtues, vices, desires and characteristics of man.

One Hellenic myth that seems to have been invented for the specific attention of Utah is the legend of the Minotaur. The minotaur was a hideous monster, half man and half bull, which lived in the labyrinth. The ways and passages through the labyrinth were so complicated that all who attempted to pass through were lost. Foul and deadly monsters in the meshes of the labyrinth were devoured by the minotaur. Heroes who sought to find and slay the monster lost their way and perished.

The minotaur demanded of the Athenians a yearly tribute of youths and maidens. When this tribute became no longer bearable the hero Theseus entered the labyrinth and slew the minotaur. Utah, too, has her minotaur which demands its yearly tribute of maidens. Like the minotaur of old it lives in a labyrinth of falsehood, fraud, flattery and deceit. Many heroes who have sought to destroy this monster have perished. The Tribune is a Theseus who will destroy this minotaur, Polygamy.

Very truly yours, A. SOJOURNER.

Cheyenne Man Wants His Harness Tools and Wife

City Attorney H. J. Dinwiddie has a job on his hands. An illiterate Cheyenne man is besieging him with requests to find his runaway wife. The Cheyenne man doesn't seem to care so much about his missing spouse, but he bitterly bewails the loss of his clothes and some harness tools that she carried away with her. The city attorney is urged to observe the utmost secrecy.

The writer says that he has written to the sheriff and the chief of police here about the matter, but that he has received no answer. His epistle to the city attorney, which is not the first of its kind that Mr. Dinwiddie has had to peruse at considerable labor, is given herewith in full, spelling and all.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 22.

"Dear sir, City Curney, I write to you to see if you will do me a favor I want you to find me my wife. She has my clothing and some harness tools that I am in need of I wrote 3 letters and I haven't received no answer and one to the sheriff and one to the Chief of Police and no answer I don't know what is the matter I am very anxious to hear from her she was in bad health when I left her and I please find her and find out how she is getting along and let me no at once please write your self and don't let her no it find out what she has done with my trunk and my harness tools write soon as you can."

CONTEST PRACTICALLY ENDS SATURDAY, AUGUST 27th

Although the end of the $10,000 competition does not come until four days thereafter, the LAST special offer of the contest ends at 6 o'clock Saturday evening of this week. It is presumed that every candidate who has subscriptions to turn in will do so this week, while the orders count nearly double. The winning of the 44 liberal prizes will, in all probability, be effected during the next four days.

Country candidates must have all subscriptions in the contest office by the time the offer closes. This means that remittances should be brought in in person or mailed not later than Friday evening.

Get every promise of subscriptions fulfilled RIGHT NOW. A word to the wise is sufficient.

But One More Published Count

The next and last published report to be made in this contest will appear Sunday. The polls for this count close at 4 o'clock Friday evening, Aug. 26. Your friends are watching your progress and will help you if you show them you are helping yourself and are well up in the running. Cast several thousand votes and lead your district if possible. It will pay.
